BROTHER™ COLOR INKJET ALL-IN-ONE UNITS NOW SUPPORT AIRPRINT™

BRIDGEWATER, N.J. (January 24, 2012) – Brother International Corporation, a leader in products for small office environments, has recently launched several color inkjet all-in-one products that support AirPrint™. AirPrint is a wireless technology that allows users to print from their iPad, iPhone, iPod touch without having to first install a printer driver. The supported models include the MFC-J280w, MFC-J430w, MFC-J625dw, MFC-J825dw, and MFC-J5910dw.

In July, Brother released a new line of small office, home office inkjets that now support AirPrint. AirPrint is a convenient feature for busy small business owners who need immediate access to high-impact images and on the go information, such as realtors, event managers and architects. All future Brother wireless printers will feature AirPrint support.
